

THE MYSTERIES OF THE FIVE SISTERS

BY

ISHITA PRABHU

About the Author

I am Ishita Prabhu children's book writer and novelist. I am currently studying in Grade 4 of National Public School and wish to be a Detective Novelist. I have started my first novel in writing this book, "The Mysteries of the Five Sisters". I would also like to solve the mysteries and puzzles. I would also like to continue writing other types of fun loving children stories.

Contents

Chapter -1	3
THE CASE OF THE MISSING PERSON	3
Chapter -2	5
The Case of the Missing Fish	5
Chapter – 3.....	7
Visit to Grandfather’s Farm	7

Chapter -1

THE CASE OF THE MISSING PERSON

Mr Abhijit's family moved to a new town in Gujarat. His daughter Meera was admitted to a new school. Miss Maya, the class teacher of Meera, welcomed her and asked to introduce herself.

Few days passed by. One day she was taking attendance and noticed that Meera was absent.

On hearing this, Sahara told that she had seen Meera at the playground in the morning. Teacher was puzzled to hear this. All the children in the class started whispering. Kavya stood up and said, "I can help in finding her".

Kavya asked, Sahara "What was she doing in the playground?"

Sahara said, "She was reading a book". Miss Maya, Kavya and Sahara went to the playground in search of her.

They could not find her. They saw the PT teacher at the ground and asked him if he had seen Meera.

He had seen Meera walking towards the Gym.

All three went to the Gym but she wasn't there. They did not see any one.

Sahara said, "Let's check the library". Even there they could not find her. So Miss Maya said she had to report this to the principal. Meanwhile Kavya and Sahara went back to the gym to find some clues. They could hear some crying and screaming.

They started walking towards the source of the sound. They saw a wash room in the gym and was locked from outside. When they opened the door, they saw Meera crying.

Sahara was very happy to see her friend. And all three went to the Principal and informed about what happened.

All the children clapped for Sahara and Kavya to find, Meera the missing girl.

Chapter -2

The Case of the Missing Fish

Kavya had a new pet it was a gold fish, her name was Goldie. Kavya was feeding Goldie after that she had gone to dance class. Aydha's friends had come to play. RIA and Sia were doing their homework. Rita had gone to their aunt's house to help her cook for evening party which was hosted by her aunt.

After Kavya returned from dance class and went to feed Goldie, she saw that Goldie was missing. She screamed and was upset to see Goldie missing. With rage she went and asked Ria and Sia, if they had seen Goldie. They were not aware of what had happened. They told, Aydha friends had come over.

Kavya was angrily looking for Aydha. She was in backyard garden. She questioned about Goldie. At first she denied and then she recalled that Sakshi had been to her room. Hopefully she would know about Goldie. They went to Sakshi's house and enquired her. Sakshi told she spent some time with Goldie and left.

Kavya and her sisters were confused and clueless about Goldie. They started walking back home and thinking. Suddenly, Ria remembered that Meera had come home looking for you. She wanted a book. So let's go to Meera's house and ask her if she knows anything about Goldie.

Meera told, "I went to pick the book from Kavya's room, and saw Goldie was not moving." She didn't know what to do and thought changing the water could make a difference. Immediately she took the fish and placed in Bella's bath tub filled with fresh water.

All of them came back running to see if the Goldie was in the bath tub. Goldie was swimming happily in the big bath tub. Everyone was very happy seeing Goldie.

Chapter – 3

Visit to Grandfather's Farm

The summer vacation had just begun. We were thinking of what should we do to make our vacation more exciting. A lot of different ideas were shared by the sisters, and we finally decided to go to our Grandpa's house.

The grandfather's house was far away from town with lot of fields and greenery around. There were small forest areas on hills which was very scenic. He had lot of cows, sheep and a pet dog called Sheru.

We spoke about the plan with our parents. They told they had busy schedule at work, hence will not be able to stay and would drop the children at the Grandpa's house. We felt very excited on hearing this and were overwhelmed with joy.

It was a long journey to reach the Grandpa's house, and we played lot of fun games on the way. By evening we reached and all were tired. All of us had dinner and fell asleep. Next day morning, our parents left back home. Our grandpa took us for a walk to the farm. Sheru accompanied us wherever we went. Sheru had long legs and looked very furious. At the same time, it was very friendly and we loved cuddling him.

Few days passed and had a great time exploring all the nearby forest and valleys. One night grandparents were fast asleep, and we were chit chatting and discussing on the next day's program. Suddenly we heard Sheru barking from a distant. We went out to check on him. We followed the noise and it led us to the sheep's shed. Sheru was trying to catch the thieves, but they managed to escape with three sheep loaded in their mini truck. Immediately two of the sisters ran back home to alert the grandpa. We also took the pics of the escaping thieves and their truck using the mobile.

Next day morning grandfather reported this to the police. The police came by to investigate and we showed them the location and also the pics we had taken. After couple of days the thieves were caught and the police thanked us for a quick action and the pics were very helpful for them to crack the case.

The sheep were returned to the grandfather. The grandfather was very proud of us and felt happy.

Blurb

The Five sisters are young detectives who love solving mysteries and helping others. Solving the mysteries is great talent they obtain. These five sisters, Kavya, Aadhya, Riya, Siya and Sarah make a good team. They solve great mysteries and you would love to read this book on how they solve the different mysteries around their daily life. Hope you all would love reading this book. Please do share your feedback.