

Amazing Short Stories

Interesting stories based on important morals

Authored by: Aarav Vijaykumar Birange

Tiggy's Big Day

Once there lived a boy named Rohan. He lived with his parents in Main Street. People used to call him "The Mop of the street" because of his messy hairstyle. At school, his impatient and strict teacher always used to scold him because he never used to comb his hair. One sunny afternoon, he had seen a colourful and humongous poster stuck on a wall. It was about a pet talent show which will happening next week. And the the prize was a great big box of chocolates.

He wanted to participate in the race, but he had no pet. Poor Rohan, his heart was broken into pieces. He went home and asked his parents for any solution. Luckily, his parents had a solution. They told him to buy a pet from the pet shop. Rohan was delighted and couldn't wait to buy a pet. The next day, he went to the pet shop and saw that there were no pets! There was only one pet and it was a Tortoise. Rohan knew that Tortoises can't be trained. AAAARRRRGGGGHHHH! Said Rohan. He was so frustrated that he banged his head on the door.

But he still wanted to participate in the Pet Talent Show. So he bought the Tortoise and named it Tiggy. When Tiggy noticed that Rohan was a nice and a beloved boy, he started to like him. And finally it was the day for the Pet Talent Show. Rohan was worried because he never knew what will happen. When Rohan reached where the Pet Talent Show was supposed to be, everyone guffawed when they saw Rohan's pet. Rohan felt remorseful. Tiggy didn't want Rohan to feel remorseful. So he had an excellent idea. When the pet talent show started, each and every pet had a brilliant move. Now it was Tiggy's turn. And as you know that Tiggy didn't wanted Rohan to feel remorseful., so he fell upside-down on the floor, went inside his shell and and started to gyrate in one place. Everyone was astonished. They had never seen such an act before. "It was spectacular" the judges thought. And the judges declared that Tiggy is the winner of the Pet Talent Show. Rohan didn't couldn't believe his eyes. After that day Tiggy and Rohan became best friends forever.

The Story of a Peacock and a Crow

Once in a jungle lived two friends. Mayur and Tillu. Mayur was a peacock and Tillu was a crow. Mayur never trusted Tillu as she thought that he was cunning and selfish . But Tillu was never like that. Everyone in the jungle used to love him and always used to praise him. One day when Tillu was flying high above the jungle, he had seen a vile hunter coming his way. So he flew and alerted everyone.

When he told those words to Mayur, she didn't believe it. She just ignored him and went away. Later when Mayur was walking in the jungle, she got caught in a net. Then the hunter dragged the net with Mayur trapped inside and headed towards his treehouse. When Tillu saw this happening with Mayur he was disconsolated. Then he had got a splendid idea. He asked the rat family if they would help free Mayur.

They firmly agreed and headed towards the hunter's treehouse. When they were on their way, they saw that the hunter still did not reach his treehouse. They thought that this was their best chance to teach the hunter a lesson. So, the rats started attacking. Some of the rats distracted the hunter while the others tried to free Mayur. Soon Mayur was free and the hunter learned his lesson. This day onwards the hunter never dreamt of killing animals. Mayur felt remorseful because she thought that Tillu was cunning and selfish. Tillu forgave Mayur and after that day they became best friends forever.

The Story of a Skunk and a Monkey

Once, in a jungle lived two friends. Kaalia and Moti. Kaalia was a skunk and Moti was a Monkey. Moti didn't like Kaalia as he stinked a lot. The full jungle stayed away from Kaalia because of this reason. One day, Moti had planned an excellent party for all the animals. But she didn't invite Kaalia and Sher Khan. Sher Khan is a ferocious predator who wants something and has it. Till now Sher Khan has eaten every type of animal he wanted. When Sher Khan noticed that he wasn't invited to the party, he was annoyed. He decided to hunt every animal who came to the party. When Kaalia noticed that he and Sher Khan were not invited to the party, he knew that Sher Khan won't sit still. So, he decided to check if Sher Khan was in his cave or not. Finally it was the day for the party. Everyone had come to the party. Sher Khan was agonizingly waiting for the time to eat the animals. Soon, Sher Khan thought that this was the right time to eat the animals. So he ran as fast as a Cheetah. When Kaalia saw that Sher Khan was not in his cave he was 100% sure that he was heading for the party and would try to ruin the party. So, he also headed towards the party. When they both reached the party, Moti was astonished. Before Sher Khan could take another step, Kaalia farted his stinky smell on Sher Khan and he ran towards his cave. Moti thanked Kaalia for all his help and invited him to the party. From that day onwards no one teased Kaalia because of his stinky smell.

The Clock Competition

Once, there lived a poor family who didn't have enough food to live on this Earth. They were so hungry as a dog had never eaten a bone! They also didn't even know the basics of English. But they knew how to read. One day, when the poor family's father was walking on the noisy street, he had seen a competition poster stuck on a pole. It was about a clock competition which will be held next weekend. There was an important notice. It said that you have to bring an analog clock. It mentioned that it was at 6 o'clock. It also mentioned that the winner will earn a prize money of 50 crores. As you know that the poor family absolutely needed money, they discussed and decided to participate in the competition.

But, there was a problem. They had an old and a broken clock which showed the time 6:30. Then the brother of the family told that "We didn't think of participating in any competition till now because we were scared of losing, but now we will have to participate. What if we might win". Hearing these words, the family really thought that they might win. Finally it was the day for the Clock Competition. Everyone was curious and excited to know who will win the competition. When the poor family reached where the Clock Competition was held, everyone laughed when they looked at them and their clock. The family's sister cried and cried until she was empathized. Soon, the competition started. Everyone's clock showed 1 or 2 minutes late or early. It took 30 minutes for the judges to reach to the last participant which was the poor family. And at the first look at the poor family's clock, the judges announced that the poor family is the winner of the Clock Competition. The others couldn't believe their eyes. After that day the poor family became a rich family and never went hungry again.

About the Author and Illustrator

Aarav Vijaykumar Birange

Aarav was born in Solapur, Maharashtra, India. He is nine years old and has a little brother. He likes to play with dominoes, LEGOS. His favourite book is Diary of a Wimpy Kid. When he grows- up he wants to be a mechanical engineer.

Blurb

When there is a Pet Talent Show, Rohan participates in it. But he doesn't have any pet. Soon he finds a pet. But will that pet be useful to him?

Read more to know more

